Edmund Rice Camps for Kids WA News Bulletin

CEO's Welcome

Dear Eddie Rice Family

On behalf of Tony Manso, our Edmund Rice Camps for Kids WA (ERCKWA) Board Chair, as well as our Board and staff, I would like to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a happy, safe and healthy New Year!

It's been another big year for us and you will be able to read all about it when we share our Annual Report with you in 2019. I am indebted to my team, the Board and of course the countless volunteers and supporters for helping deliver camp experiences for hundreds of kids and leaders throughout the year and I'm delighted to see the Eddie Rice spirit well and truly alive.

There have been many highlights this year, but to see so many leaders being awarded for long service at our recent Volunteer Awards Night and to have Brother Terry Casey present awards at the function was really special.

We're in full swing preparing for a huge month of camps in January and I look forward to seeing our wonderful leaders in action making a difference and helping the kids to rise above.

See you in the New Year!

KMIham

> From everyone at ERCKWA, Merry

Christmas!

Community Engagement

Sponsor a Child Initiative

ERCKWA's Manager Community Engagement, Meg Huitema, is seeking to raise much-needed funds for children who may otherwise be unable to participate in our 2019 programs.

Just $125 provides a disadvantaged or at-risk child with the opportunity to attend our applicable programs free of charge in 2019. Donating to our Sponsor a Child initiative is easy – simply visit edmundricecampswa.com.au or click the image below. Any and all donations towards this fundraiser are very welcome.

For more information please contact Meg Huitema via ercwamce@edmundrice.org. Please note, due to child protection concerns we are unable to provide information on the children awaiting our camp programs.

Sticky Rice Family Christmas Party

Over 100 Eddie Rice kids and their families (23 total!) joined almost 50 of our volunteer leaders for our Sticky Rice Family Christmas Party on 9 December.

Everyone enjoyed the special guest appearance by Santa, as well as a bouncy castle, slip n slide, animal farm, games and craft stations, which were enthusiastically enjoyed by the children while their parents and carers relaxed over a morning tea of scones, jam and cream. The BBQ, ice-creams, hampers and lolly bags also went down a treat!

Sticky Rice gives parents, carers and our associate referral organisations the opportunity to see what we do and meet our team. Our Eddie Rice kids also got the chance to meet other children who will be attending their camps in January.

It was especially heart-warming how many parents and carers came up to staff to say how grateful and appreciative they are of ERCKWA's work.

Special thanks to the lovely staff members from our sponsors, Behets Family Foundation and Landcorp, who came and showed their support, as well as the ERCKWA volunteers and staff who assisted on the day. Thanks also to Westcourt and Vince Sinagra for generously allowing us to use the beautiful Salter Point grounds that overlook the Swan River.

Volunteers

Thank You Very Much

We would like to take the opportunity to thank our volunteer leaders and support volunteers for all of their tireless work this year – your amazing contributions do not go unnoticed and we are so grateful that you are part of the Eddie Rice family.

From being volunteer leaders, cooks, drivers and management team members on our camps to helping us organise our events, serving on our committees, working in our office and so much more, we wouldn't be able to make a difference to as many WA kids and their families without you. The Eddie Rice spirit is well and truly alive in you all!

2018 Volunteer Leaders Awards Night

Over 60 volunteers, staff and corporate partners attended the annual ERCKWA Volunteer Awards Night on 1 December at the Cambridge Bowls Club. The venue was beautifully decorated with balloons and centrepieces and was soon filled with an energetic crowd of leaders determined to create the Eddie Rice atmosphere. It was great to see a mix of new and experienced leaders.

This year we introduced our ERCKWA Long Service Awards to recognise leaders who have helped deliver large numbers of camps and programs, while also volunteering at our events, in the office, at Telethon Community Cinemas and so on. Recipients were determined by a number of criteria that will be fine-tuned for the 2019 Volunteer Awards, and we will provide the full list of Long Service Award recipients in our 2018 Annual Report.

Everyone in the room was inspired to see a number of exceptional leaders recognised for having volunteered on over 20 camps and programs – #squadgoals! Special mention must be made to Mel Raich, Anna Separovich, Georgia Norfolk, Madi Armstrong, Rachel Turpin, Zoya Yukhnevich, Curtis Novacsek, Katie Bownes, Pia Novacsek, Stephen Morphett and Zac Wilson.

The ERCKWA Volunteer of the Year Award was also presented and, as in previous years, was contested by some truly outstanding nominees. The top three finalists were Katelyn Bownes, Mel Raich and James Loughnan, with Katelyn Bownes being the very worthy winner. True to her good nature, Katelyn graciously acknowledged several fellow leaders who have inspired her and thanked ERCKWA for the positive impact her camp involvement has had in her life. Congratulations, Katie – you're a real star!

Once the formalities were concluded we performed a world record 'Group Hug Jumping' that saw Brother Terry and Liana D'Ascanio (award presenter and ERCKWA Board Member) take the lead. Our goal next year will be a Group Hug Jumping involving over 100 people!

Then, in typical leader fashion the party only stopped when the lights went on and we started locking up the venue!

Well done, everyone, and thank you for making the evening such a success.
